

K-Love is an awesome station that offers encouragement and the truth - I never have to worry about what my children may hear. Taking this off of the air would be shutting a door to many households who don't have many options for listening with little ears around - so much of the garbage on the radio is so damaging....This station serves the public interest by speaking the truth and sending encouragement in the form of song. We love K-LOVE!